Carl I. S. Mueller graduated from University of Southern California Gould School of Law in Los Angeles in 2013. During law school, Mr. Mueller externed with Judge Stuart M. Rice of the Los Angeles Superior Court. Currently, his practice focuses on business litigation, professional malpractice litigation, legal fee disputes, and employment matters.

For his undergraduate studies, Mr. Mueller graduated magna cum laude from Marquette University, with a bachelor's degree in Political Science. After Marquette, he spent one year doing AmeriCorps service.

In addition to his professional career, Mr. Mueller likes to stay active in the community and has been an assistant coach for the Junior Varsity lacrosse team at Loyola High School of Los Angeles since 2010.

The Maloney Firm, APC

Our attorneys have represented Fortune 500 companies, small businesses, sole proprietors, and everything in between, and possess the skill and confidence to go head-to-head with larger firms.

Business Trial Lawyers

The Maloney Firm represents clients in trials, arbitrations and appeals in state and federal courts, and also regularly counsels clients on a wide range of business matters.

Aggressive, Strategic, Experienced

Always looking out for the best interests of its clients, The Maloney Firm provides significant expertise without significant cost.

The Maloney Firm places a heavy emphasis on the early identification of critical issues to develop the most productive and cost-effective strategy to resolve each case, whether it involves a motion practice, settlement, or trial.

By advising clients on the best possible approach early on, a game plan can be developed and implemented to reach that solution. As each case moves forward, we routinely stop to re-evaluate and fine-tune our strategy, with the goal to obtain the best possible outcome.

Practice Areas

Business Litigation including breach of contract, business torts, partnership and corporate governance disputes, antitrust, intellectual property, and environmental matters.

Employment Defense including wrongful termination, wage and hour, discrimination matters, and labor grievances.

Professional Malpractice including, breach of fiduciary duty, conflicts of interest, and excessive legal fees.
